1	Friday Counts as two shifts. The structure of the raffle will take a form to be determined annually by the committee in line with the Club's financial position.
3	Any member whose subs end up at being more than 50% of the full fee can present the Treasurer with a direct debit mandate to spread the costs over 12 months (or the remaining months of the club financial year for a new member) as an alternative method of payment.
4	Payable on each occasion.
5	Per remaining quarter of the club financial year but not to exceed 50% of the full fee. Please include page 3 upon return of form

DISCLAIMER

I, as a member of the South London Warlords War games, Role-playing and Military Modelling Club understand that official activities, in which I may choose to take part, are entered into of my own free will. I acknowledge that some of these activities may carry an element of risk to my person and/or my personal property. I agree that under no circumstances will I be able to hold the South London Warlords club, or its officers, liable for any injury, loss or damage to my person and/or property suffered as a result of my participation in such official activities. This does not affect my entitlement to claim from the club's insurers.

I certify that I have read or seen a copy of the club's "general code of conduct for live role-playing and other external club activities" and am happy, when engaged in such activities, to abide by the regulations and guidelines set out therein.

I understand that this disclaimer of responsibility will take immediate effect from the date and time of my signature below, and will continue in force for the duration of my membership of the club. I recognise that it is my own responsibility to arrange adequate insurance cover for myself and/or my personal effects.

I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the South London Warlords as set out in the club constitution.
